A02 Useful Tools, +Candy, Saving &amp; Security This workshop is ideal for those seeking the very best options and flexibility with their giving platform. Learn valuable insights and ease of use for donors and administration. Additionally, we will discuss security, fraud protection, and why churches should not sign contracts in the giving environment. You can have reasonable processing rates (frequently cost savings) while having cutting edge giving and people engagement tools. All of your systems can work smarter together. Plus, there's candy!	Stephen Ballard  Amy McCollum 	Stephen Ballard is co-founder of OnlineGiving.org. His mission to educate leader on how to use technology to raise donations and cut processing fees drives his passion to help others understand how to utilize technology and reduce the cost associated. Amy McCollum started working with OnlineGiving in late 2017. She was previously on staff of a large multisite church where she served for nearly 15 years in finance and operations. Her heart is to serve the church by using effective processes and tools to support operational ministry and infrastructure. She loves geeking out on all things process and operational related. She is a Texas native, and she and her family live just north of the Dallas area.
A03 – 7 Common Costly HR Misses in Ministry Welcome to the most practical church HR workshop you will ever go to! We won't give you a general overview of ministry HR, but instead, we will teach you about the seven most commonly missed things in church HR. From employee classification to handling of I-9s, we will give you the tools to fix the gaps in compliance and best practices.	Tiffany Henning SPHR, CRPC 	Tiffany Henning is a veteran in church and ministry HR with over 20 years of combined experience. Tiffany is the founder and chief people person of HR Ministry Solutions, a faith-based non-profit specifically created to simplify HR compliance and staff pain points for churches and ministries.
A04 – Leveling Up Your Church's Cybersecurity Cybersecurity attacks and breaches are real threats for churches, and we're only seeing them increase in frequency as technology becomes more and more integrated into our lives. Being prepared and having a plan is the best way to combat a cybersecurity attack. Learn how to take your church to the next level of awareness, prevention, and responsiveness for cybersecurity attacks.	Travis Phipps 	Travis Phipps is the director of technology at Enable Ministry Partners. He helps manage Enable's team of engineers and works closely with them to oversee Enable's technology strategy and direction for all clients. Travis is a preacher's kid who tells everyone that he loves doing what God clearly built him to do. He has a business degree from the University of Texas at Dallas and lives in Wylie, TX, with his wife and kids.
A05 – Your Mission &amp; Donor-Advised Funds<sup>CPE</sup> There are over one million donor-advised funds, with a combined total of $235 billion earmarked for charity. Make sure some of those funds are put to work for your mission. We'll provide a comprehensive look at the popular charitable gift vehicle, covering what donor-advised funds are, how they work, their tax advantages, and benefits both to donors and the organizations receiving grants. We'll also consider how nonprofit leaders can engage with donors about donor-advised funds.	Joe Hancock, JD  Katie Warren 	Joe Hancock, HighGround's vice president and general counsel, has more than 25 years of experience as a legal expert and esteemed speaker in areas of nonprofit, trust, estate, and charitable tax law. At HighGround, Joe counsels clients regarding charitable tax law, gift requirements, issues affecting nonprofit status, and tax and estate planning. Joe holds a BBA from Baylor University as well as MBA and JD degrees from the University of Arkansas. As client partner communications specialist, Katie Warren is the primary donor relationship manager for HighGround's Donor-Advised Fund Program. Her role also includes developing marketing strategies and communications to increase brand awareness and promote HighGround's client solutions. Katie's previous work experience includes recruiting, employee retention, marketing, and client service in the accounting and financial planning industries. She graduated with honors from Texas A&amp;M University with a BBA in marketing.

A06 – 7 Misunderstood Church Tax Principles <sup>CPE</sup> Some principles in federal tax law for churches are commonly misunderstood by church leaders...and even their tax advisors and the IRS! We will address aspects of unrelated business income, sales tax, gains on asset sales, private benefit, and other commonly misunderstood principles. Participants will have a stronger understanding of these sometimes perplexing areas of church tax law.	Michael Batts, CPA 	Mike Batts is the managing partner of Batts Morrison Wales &amp; Lee (BMWL) and has more than 30 years of experience advising churches, ministries, and nonprofit organizations in the areas of board governance, financial oversight, tax compliance and strategy, risk management, corporate structure, international activities, and other related topics. Mike has been inducted into TCN's Hall of Fame and has authored several books including Church Finance, Nonprofit Finance, and Board Member Orientation.
A07 – The Future of Church Funding Is Here <sup>CPE</sup> The future of church funding is here, and it looks, feels, and functions differently. Americans report that 69% of their charitable giving is religiously motivated, but the local church only receives 27%. The solution is not one thing. It's everything working together in an integrated funding strategy. You will leave this session with a clear understanding of how to spark increased giving in your church and adapt to the new realities of this moment.	Joe Park 	Joe Park leads the Horizons Stewardship team of thirty-six ministry strategists, ICF trained coaches, and support staff in their mission of helping churches and faith-based non-profits grow disciples and fund ministry. The Horizons team has guided raising more than 9 billion in capital funding and much more in annual and planned giving. Joe is a former bank CEO who frequently speaks on subjects impacting generosity. His weekly blog is followed by over 45,000 church leaders.
A08 – Theology and Ethics of Church Administration* Through a dynamic mix of presentations, discussions, and case study material, this workshop will explore five interrelated topics: (1) theological perspectives on church administration, (2) administration as ministry and mission, (3) administration as a fundamental task of faithful stewardship, (4) key ethical issues in administering churches and ministry organizations, and (4) the TCN Code of Ethics. Participants in this workshop will complete the 0.1 CEU required for certification in The Church Network.	Terry Bertrand DEdMin, CCA 	Terry Bertrand has recently retired where he served as the executive minister of administration for First Baptist Arlington, Texas, for 21 years. He has served in the area of church administration ministry in Texas and Louisiana for 40 years. Terry has served on the Board of NACBA (2006-10), is an adjunct professor at Dallas Baptist University, and directs TCN Certification Center at DBU. He is active in civic affairs in Arlington where he serves on four local boards.
A09 - Discover Why Your Website Is Broken Wonder if your church website has been maintained properly?! Finally, find out (IF YOU DARE). Come, submit your URL, and have Mark MacDonald, church communication sage, randomly picked websites to teach the group about web paradigm, UI/UX, SEO, content basics, and so much more. This fast-paced, unique experience will discuss as many websites as time will allow. Leave with a ton of notes, tips, and practical applications!	Mark MacDonald 	Mark MacDonald is church branding strategist for BeKnownForSomething.com, a national church communication and branding agency, coaching pastors and thousands of churches to become relevant in their community. B03 – Design for Community Ministry Churches are expanding and renovating their facilities and campuses to accommodate broader community focused ministries. This session will explore examples of ministry-based projects in non-traditional settings. Examples include educational, retail, outdoor assembly, parks, recreation, benevolence, care facilities, multi-use buildings and early learning centers. Examples include non-tithe income revenue to help support ministries outside the church.	Stephen Carroll, AIA  Shane Hunt, AIA NCARB 	Stephen Carroll has forty-five years of experience in church architecture and planning. Since 1980, Rardin and Carroll's approach to architecture is to provide design solutions which facilitate both function and aesthetic, while being cost effective. He has been principal designer for over 1200 projects and has served as a church trustee for 35 years and on numerous non-profit boards. Shane Hunt joined the RCA team in January 2020, following his faith to use his talents for the higher purposes, bringing his 27 plus years of experience to the team. He has a Bachelor of Architecture degree from the University of Tennessee in 1995 and a master's degree in urban master planning from the University of Oklahoma in 1997. He is a nationally registered architect with multiple licenses through the National Council of Architectural Registration Board (NCARB).
B04 – Ministry Banking and Fundraising<sup>CPE</sup> This workshop will enable the church business administrator or executive pastor to gain an understanding of how lenders determine the borrowing capacity of the ministry as well as the loan application, loan approval, and loan closing processes. Common financing terms, loan structure, and loan pricing will also be covered.	Dan Mikes  Michael Faulkner 	Dan Mikes, senior vice president for Cass Bank, has been financing ministries for 31 years and has funded more than $5.5 billion in loans to churches. Michael Faulkner leads the Solutions Team at TouchPoint and is the co-host of the monthly "What's the Point?" webinars. B06 – The Future of Giving: Storytelling The way members look at donating has changed. They want to know what their funds are being used for and the impact their gift has made. Nonprofits have been using the technique of storytelling for years to help create connection and drive engagement among their donors. Join Abby Bergman from Vanco as she shares how your church can utilize the power of storytelling to build connections with your members and inspire generosity all year long.	Abby Bergman 	Abby Bergman is Vanco's director of marketing. Abby has experience understanding churches' needs and helping them embrace new ways to have their message resonate with members – no matter where their members are. Abby works with churches to provide them with the tools they need to succeed even as the way churchgoers worship changes.
B07 - Independent Contractor or Employee? <sup>CPE</sup> As the IRS increases scrutiny of workers classified as independent contractors it is imperative churches understand how to properly classify their workers. Classifying workers in the same manner as “has always been done” is no longer acceptable. Misclassifying workers can result in significant penalties to the church in addition to inviting unwanted scrutiny from the IRS. This session will provide guidance for properly classifying workers and avoiding common errors made by churches.	Elaine Sommerville CPA 	Elaine L. Sommerville is licensed as a certified public accountant by the State of Texas. She is a regular speaker for the Texas Society of CPAs, The Church Network, the Houston Church Coop, and is an instructor for the AICPA. B10 – It’s More than Just the Numbers <sup>CPE</sup> Oftentimes, people think auditors are mostly focused on the financial results, when, in reality, there is much more to assess about an organization’s health. In this session, we will look at the other areas that matter in an organization including the impact of internal control design and structure, risk management, tone at the top, key metrics, and how staff and organizational culture impact all of these areas.	Hannah Lanser, CPA 	Hannah Lanser is an audit senior manager and leads the national religious niche practice at Wegner CPAs. For nearly ten years, she has been providing audit, tax, and consulting services for non-profit and religious organizations. Hannah has a passion for financial stewardship and accountability and is a firm believer that strong financial and administrative systems result in greater organizational success. Hannah annually attends annual continuing professional education seminars on accounting, auditing, compliance, and tax issues.
Thursday Keynote—The Changing Church: Looking Back to Leap Forward The Church never sits still for long. We have a long history of finding creative ways to share Jesus and do effective ministry from our earliest days until now. The most transformational impact, however, happens when the Church finds ways to adapt its forms and structures to address the most pressing needs of the world. It doesn’t always take the same shape, but it almost always depends upon creative leaders.	Dr. Matt Cook  mattc@chchurches.org	Dr. Matt Cook serves as the director of the Center for Healthy Churches. He joined the Center after serving local congregations for thirty years with twenty years as senior pastor in churches in Texas, Arkansas, and North Carolina. Matt is a sought-after preacher, teacher, and workshop leader across the country and in various denominational settings. In addition to his work at the Center, he has served as interim pastor in multiple congregations across the country. Matt holds a bachelor’s degree from Samford University and completed both his MDiv and PhD in Church History at Baylor University. When it comes to helping congregations, Matt combines research and scholarly insight with an emphasis on strategic focus and missional awareness. He has training and experience in strategic planning, staff reorganization and leadership development. Matt also has significant experience assisting congregations in the midst of pastoral transitions. According to Matt, “We are in the midst of the most challenging but also most dynamic period of change that congregations in North America have ever seen. We can either drown in those waves of change or we can surf them. But when a congregation decides to do the work of gaining missional clarity and creatively engaging its community, amazing things can happen.”
C01 – Church Construction—Where to Begin? Whether you are renovating, expanding, or considering a new building, where do you begin? We will dive into the Biblical model for ministry construction projects. Did you know God revealed the way to fund your project? Do you understand He already has the blueprints for your project in heaven? When we follow this Biblical pattern, we can complete projects on budget that truly enhance our ministry vision and calling! This session will uncover the right steps!	Rodney James 	Rodney James was raised building with his father. God called him from the corporate world to full-time ministry where he served as church administrator and later senior pastor for 20 years. Having led his church through three major projects, and helped over 150 churches design ministry facilities, Rodney understands the full process from discovering need, designing, and building ministry related projects. Rodney has a gift and passion to educate churches and lead them through on-budget projects.

He is passionate about helping churches meet their ministry goals through well-designed facilities. Mike builds strong client relationships and has an intimate knowledge of working with building committees and church staff.
C03 – What Text-Savvy Churches Know Church leaders need digital tools for giving, communication, registrations, outreach, assimilation, discipleship, check-in, volunteer management, pastoral care, and more. And they need a delivery system that doesn't require constant promotion. People love to text. In fact, it is the most used app on most phones and 97% of Americans text every day. Businesses and other organizations use text all the time. Join the conversation as we talk about what text-savvy churches know and are learning.	Boyd Pelley 	Boyd Pelley is co-founder and culture architect at Churchteams. From 1990 to 2008 he served as discipleship, administrative, and family pastor of churches in New Mexico, Nebraska, and Texas.
